ISU rules According to the latest ISU rules. You must come to a complete stop after 20 seconds from the last step of the PD. (Deduction will be given by the referee after that)

*1 Up to 9 elements can be performed. All performed elements will be given a base. Up to one revolution of a jump may be performed. There are no restrictions for the number of rotations for spins and twizzles.

Update of rules: this competition will be revised to the local competition rules to popularize ice dance. ① No deductions will be made by the referee regarding on music violation and choreography violation.

② When calling level B, skaters favor will be applied to the executed elements.

4. Eligibility:

① Foreign competitors are welcomed. However, for silver class and above, one partner must have passed the Silver JSF dance test or have passed level 4 singles test. (In regards to Japan Figure Skating Championships OB shuffle class, the applicant must have passed either test above.)

No requirements for Solo PD class (JSF AD level test skate or higher unless recommended by the dance judges)

- ② Same-sex couples are accepted in all classes, and may compete in multiple classes (even across different levels)
- ③ May participate in pro-class with a pro-instructor (welcomed to those without a pro-instructor partner as well)
- ④ The draw and parternes for Japan Figure Skating Championships OB shuffle event will take place on the day, and announced then (restrictions of JSF test skate: 2nd Preliminary of lower for E-1, Silver or level 4 for E-3 class)
- ⑤ The sum of the partners for the Age class event must be met by the day of the competition

5. Registration Fee: 12,000 yen per person (online feedback from judges, competition video and photos included)

- Competitors participating in multiple events will receive 10% off from the total registration fee (=total registration fee×0.9)
- Pro/instructors: 10,000 yen per event
- Japan Figure Skating Championships OB shuffle class: 25,000 yen per person (includes the partner's fees, video for the introductory and ending steps of PD)

6. Music

- PD: the organizing committee will choose the ISU/JSF test skate music or, competitors may submit their music as a CD on the day (with name and participating class written) (warm-up music: ISU specified music will be used)
- RD and FD: competitors must submit their music a CD on the day (with name and participating class written)

7. Scoring System

- Pattern Dances and Solo Dances: according to IJS (No PD key points)
- Rhythm Dance and Free Dance: according to IJS (With PD key points)
- ISU virtual online system for all events (The technical representative will be the only one present on the rink side) Only for PD, if there is a tie, the team with the higher score on the 2nd pattern dance will be placed above.

8. Skating Order

After registration deadline, the executive committee will do the draw and announce the starting order 10 days prior to the competition on the website (the time schedule will be announced 14 days prior to the competition)

In adoption of the ISU virtual online system, the music will play 15 seconds after your name is called
(However, this does not apply for B1, B2, C1, C2, C3 class categories)

9. Awards

- Awards will not be held. Results will be uploaded on the website on October 3rd (Tuesday).
